

Alabama DEPARTMENT OF ARCHIVES & HISTORY

Permission to Publish Alabama Media Group Collection

Conditions and Guidelines:

1. All materials provided remain the property of the Alabama Department of Archives and History (ADAH), and may not be published, exhibited, broadcast, posted on the Internet, sold, traded, shared, or used in any way not specified in this agreement without the written permission of the ADAH.
2. Permission must be requested using this form. The ADAH does not sign outside permission forms.
3. Permission is granted here for one-time, non-exclusive worldwide publication/production rights, as well as for promotional purposes relating to the publication/production. This grant of permission is in perpetuity and applies only to the requested publication/production. Other uses will require additional permission.
4. The ADAH represents that it has the appropriate copyright and reproduction rights to enter into this agreement and grant the permission granted herein.
5. The publishing party assumes full responsibility for the use of the material and conformity to the laws of defamation and privacy, and holds harmless the ADAH from any claims arising from this use.
6. The material may not be substantially altered. Elements such as people, signs, or any other part of the images may not be digitally removed or added. The perspective or depth of the image may not be digitally altered. Images may not be reversed. Cropping and/or enlargement to enhance portions of the images is permissible, as are adjustments to enhance the definition of the images.
7. Material should not be presented or described in any way that does not accurately describe its content, time period, or geographic location.
8. Images may not be posted on websites at resolutions higher than 72 dpi.
9. The following credit line must be included for each item reproduced (for films, a credit line in the closing credits will suffice):
