Exploring Alabama Communities through Oral Histories

History Museum of Mobile, Mobile
June 25-27, 2024

Melissa Motes, Mobile County Public Schools
Krystle Smith, Baldwin County Schools

The Port City is teeming with stories of a diverse and complex past. Through hands-on activities with primary sources, participants in this institute will explore lesser-known stories from the rich history of Mobile and its surrounding area. This workshop will offer participants the opportunity to engage with oral histories while learning new strategies to help their students connect with local and state history in meaningful ways.
